

Corporate Accountant

Australian Olympic Committee | Sydney, NSW | Permanent, Full Time

Most people see the athletes. Few see the team that makes it possible.

About the AOC

The Australian Olympic Committee is the national body responsible for Australia's participation in the Olympic Movement. We select and prepare Australian teams for the Olympic and Youth Olympic Games, and we fund and support elite athletes through our foundations and programs. We're a small, high-performing team based in Sydney - and the work we do matters.

The Role

We're looking for a sharp, motivated Corporate Accountant to join our Finance team. Reporting to the Head of Finance, you'll take ownership of the general ledger and month-end processes across the AOC and its associated entities - the Australian Olympic Foundation, the AOC Community Fund entities, and the Athletes and Coaches Foundation.

This is a hands-on accounting role with real impact. You'll work with department heads, contribute to budgeting and forecasting model redesign (using the support of AI tools), and play a key part in our annual audit and financial statements process as well as sustainability reporting.

What you'll own:

- General ledger management and month-end close across multiple entities
- BAS preparation, FBT return, and international VAT claims
- Regular P&L reporting for department heads
- Maintenance and development of Business Central (our ERP)
- Contributing to the redesign of budgeting, forecasting and reporting models

About You

You're CA or CPA qualified (or close to it), with solid experience in a similar role. You know your way around a general ledger, you're comfortable with the month-end close cycle, and you're genuinely curious about how AI tools can make finance smarter.

You bring strong Excel skills, a high attention to detail, and the kind of proactive mindset that means you spot problems before anyone else does.

Why Join Us?

Working at the AOC means being part of something bigger than the balance sheet. You'll work in a collaborative, purpose-driven team in our Sydney office.

Ready to make an impact?

Apply now and be part of something bigger than numbers.

We are an inclusive organisation that values our staff and aims to create a sense of belonging for all.
