YOGOC Dakar 2026 and the IOC Process your Personal Data as joint data controllers for the following Authorised Purposes:

AUTHORISED PURPOSES	LAWFUL BASIS FOR PROCESSING
The review of accreditation applications for the purpose of granting or refusing accreditation.	Having assessed that the limits of your interests and rights are not overridden, the legitimate interests of each Party to ensure that the applicants fulfil the accreditation requirements. To the extent Senegalese data protection law applies, your acceptance of the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026 Accreditation Terms and Conditions and of the Conditions of Participation (where applicable).

Concerning the Processing mentioned above where the YOGOC Dakar 2026 and the IOC act as joint data controllers, the respective responsibilities of the YOGOC Dakar 2026 and the IOC have been determined in an agreement in compliance with applicable laws, the essence of which is reflected in the present Information Notice. In particular, under this agreement, the YOGOC Dakar 2026 will be your main point of contact for privacy issues during Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026. Irrespective of this, you can exercise your rights against either YOGOC Dakar 2026 or the IOC (see Section 9 for contacts).

The IOC may also work with other third-party controllers, such as its licensees, in its pursuit of some of the Authorised Purposes where it acts as independent data controller.

The YOGOC Dakar 2026 and the IOC reserve the right to supplement or modify the information contained in this document where they deem necessary for the success of the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026. In case of any Processing of your Personal Data not described in this Information Notice, the YOGOC Dakar 2026 and the IOC will provide adequate information to you in accordance with applicable laws.

Processing of data relating to your health in case health services are provided to you

Please note that during the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026, healthcare and medical services might be provided to you if you require assistance, notably for the monitoring and treatment of injuries, illnesses, infectious diseases or any other health states at the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026.

In this case, additional Personal Data will be Processed such as health data related to your health status including medical data (doctor referrals and prescriptions, medical examination reports, laboratory tests, radiographs, etc.), illnesses, injuries and infectious diseases.

Some of your Personal Data will be shared with third party entities such as healthcare and medical service providers who may provide treatment to you during your stay at the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026.

If healthcare services are provided to you during the Youth Olympic Games 2026, you will be provided with a specific information notice at the appropriate time and, when legally required, your consent will be collected, before proceeding with any medical intervention or treatment, except in the case of a medical emergency requiring immediate intervention that would not allow for the provision of said information notice and the collection of consent.

Processing of Personal Data for doping control purposes

During the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026, doping control activities will be conducted as part of the anti-doping programme in relation to the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026.

If you are subject to doping controls, additional Personal Data will be Processed, including biological samples (e.g., blood and urine) and associated data. This data processing is necessary for the administration and enforcement of the IOC Anti-Doping Rules applicable to the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026 and for compliance with the World Anti-Doping Code. Your data will be Processed by the IOC, as well as third party entities such as the International Testing Agency (ITA), the YOGOC Dakar 2026, World Anti-Doping Agency, and other relevant Anti-Doping Organisations. Further details regarding the anti-doping programme, including how your Personal Data will be Processed, shared and retained, will be provided to you through a separate notice at the appropriate time.

3. Collection of your Personal Data

Your Personal Data is collected on different occasions as required for the preparation, promotion, presentation, operation or otherwise necessary for success of the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026 and, in particular, when you:

- apply for an Accreditation or Guest Pass or Day Pass and complete the registration process to attend the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026;
- are provided services such as accommodation, transport, meals, or assistance;
- travel to and from Senegal for the purposes of the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026;
- are photographed, filmed or recorded at the occasion of the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026 or otherwise as part of the media coverage of the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026;
- are involved in any disciplinary procedure related to a suspected or actual breach of the rules applicable to Participants or other Accredited Persons or other legal procedure in connection with the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026;
- are involved in any safeguarding procedure during the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026;
- are involved in a research project conducted at the occasion of the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026;
- take part in any activity in connection with the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026;
- are subject to the measures implemented by the YOGOC Dakar 2026, the Senegalese authorities, the IOC and other stakeholders on the occasion of the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026 to protect your health and to ensure the safe staging of the Youth Olympic Games 2026;
- are invited to compete at the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026 (Participants only);
- participate at the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026;
- are subject to anti-doping controls and procedures.

As a general principle, the YOGOC Dakar 2026 will receive your Personal Data from your Responsible Organisation, acting as third-party data controller, transmitting your Personal Data. In addition, in certain circumstances, the YOGOC Dakar 2026 may receive your Personal Data from any third parties where such Personal Data is necessary for the Authorised Purposes described in Section 2 above.

4. Categories of Personal Data Processed

Your Personal Data Processed by the YOGOC Dakar 2026 and/or the IOC for the Authorised Purposes, referred to in this Information Notice, can be categorised as follows:

- i. Marketing Partners and other commercial partners, who provide services in connection with the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026 and promote their partnership with the Olympic Movement. The Personal Data shared includes biographical information, interests and information in relation to the Participation in the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026;
- j. travel and accommodation service providers, who provide you services;
- k. partner organisations that are involved in the development of statistics and models, historical studies, scientific and other research and development projects and may receive Personal Data for such purposes, as laid out in the Authorised Purposes, acting either for the YOGOC Dakar 2026 and/or the IOC or for themselves;
- l. any organisation designated by the YOGOC Dakar 2026 and/or the IOC as a transferee of legacy and knowledge of the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026 for the benefit of the Olympic Movement or any future sports or cultural events.

Where the above-mentioned recipients consider such measure necessary for the Authorised Purposes, they may combine or supplement any of your Personal Data with any other information in their possession. You are invited to consult the websites or other official information sources made available by the above-mentioned recipients for additional information regarding their respective operations and activities and related Processing of your Personal Data which will be Processed in a confidential manner.

6. Retention period of your Personal Data

As a general rule, certain of your Personal Data such as your biographical information, contact and travel details, information related to your participation in the Youth Olympic Games 2026 will not be kept by the YOGOC Dakar 2026 after the Youth Olympic Games 2026 and by the IOC after a period of four years following the end of the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026. Your Personal Data may be kept for a longer period of time where necessary to fulfil the Authorised Purposes including, without limitation, information deemed of historical interest (such as sports results, key biographical information and interests) and information related to the compliance of activities occurring at the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026 with the Olympic Charter and other rules applicable to you. Retention periods applicable to anti-doping activities are specified in the Annex A of the International Standard on Protection of Privacy and Personal Information, forming part of the World Anti-Doping Code, which provides that Personal Data of Participants may be retained over time by WADA, the IOC and the ITA including, for some data, for a period up to 10 years which can be extended or modified where required by law or for the purpose of conducting an anti-doping investigation or proceeding or for other purposes authorised by law.

7. Protection of your Personal Data

The YOGOC Dakar 2026 and the IOC will use technical and organisational measures to protect your Personal Data against the risks of damage, destruction, loss or unauthorised access, in accordance with applicable laws.

8. International Transfer

The YOGOC Dakar 2026 and the IOC will Process your Personal Data mainly in Senegal where the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026 take place, and in Switzerland where the IOC headquarters are located.

However, your Personal Data is likely to be transferred outside Senegal or Switzerland, either to one of the recipients of your Personal Data mentioned above in Section 5 (National Olympic Committees, Responsible Organisations...) or through the use of processors using Processing facilities in third countries. If said third countries have not been determined to offer an adequate level of protection, transfers are subject to appropriate safeguards.

9. Your rights over your Personal Data

You have the following rights over your Personal Data:

- The right to obtain confirmation as to whether or not your Personal Data are being Processed and, when it is the case, the right to access these Personal Data, as well as the right to obtain more information on the Processing;
- The right to rectify inaccurate Personal Data;
- In certain specific cases, the right to obtain the erasure of certain Personal Data;
- The right to restrict Processing in some cases;
- In certain cases, the right to object to the Processing of your Personal Data, for reasons relating to your particular situation, or the right to object to the use of your Personal Data for marketing purposes where such activity is based on legitimate interest;
- The right to withdraw your consent at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of the Processing if it is based on your consent, with regard to Processing or data transfers that are subject to your consent;
- The right to receive the Personal Data you have provided and/or the right to ask to transmit them to another controller, if the Processing is based on your consent or on a contract and the Processing is automated.

We remind you that the YOGOC Dakar 2026 or the IOC may, in accordance with the regulations, be required to refuse to grant certain requests concerning some of these rights (in particular the right of erasure), for legitimate reasons such as the need to defend legal claims or the requirements of a legal obligation to retain certain data.

The YOGOC Dakar 2026 and the IOC have designated a person in charge of receiving your complaints or questions in relation to the Processing of your Personal Data, that you can contact at the following addresses:

- In the case of the YOGOC Dakar 2026, by email at the following address: compliance@dakar2026.org
